Section 5.

The Board of Directors shall have the general direction of all business transactions of the Association. It shall adopt such rules for the regulation of the business of the Association as it shall deem desirable or necessary; it shall appoint such other committees as described in the by-laws and such other committees as described in the By-laws and such other committees as are determined to be necessary or desirable for the conduct of the Association's business; it shall receive reports on all committees and take appropriate action on the same. The board shall control and direct the manner of investing all funds of the Association. A majority of the Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend members and officers for willful infractions of the rules and regulations, of by-laws of the Association, for acts of conduct which they may deem disorderly or injurious to the interest or hostile to the objects of the Association, but the offender may appeal from the sentence of suspension, as hereinafter provided; prior to the suspension of a member he shall be entitled to a notice and hearing before the Board, or before a committee of the same, whichever he may elect. A member suspended from the Association by sentence of the Board of Directors may appeal there from within twenty (20) days after notice thereof has been posted on each bulletin board of each station, by filing with the Secretary a written notice of his appeal, and reasons thereof. All appeals shall be tried before a special meeting of the membership of the Association, to be called for the purpose by the Board of Directors within thirty (30) days after notice of appeal shall have been filed with Secretary. The President or Vice-President shall preside at such meeting and the cause of the suspension shall be reported in writing by the Board of Directors with a statement of facts on which their sentence was founded, copies of which have been furnished to the appellant and the Secretary of the Association at least ten (10) days before the meeting. The appellant or his representative shall, then, present his defense, the President shall submit for a vote of the membership at the special meeting whether or not the suspension should be affirmed. If the majority of those present shall vote in the affirmative, the sentence shall stand as the final judgment of the Association. If less than a majority of those present vote in the affirmative, the sentence of the Board of Directors shall be reversed and the appellant shall be restored to membership forthwith.

SECTION 6.

Any officer of the Association or member of the Board of Directors who is or may be declared out of benefits during his term of office shall have no voice or vote until his arrears are paid and he is again declared a member in good standing. If such officer or member of the Board of Directors remains out of benefits for a period of more than thirty (30) days, his office shall be declared vacant and a successor elected.

SECTION 7.

Five (5) Board members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by the Board of Directors, but any fewer members may adjourn a meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

COMMITTEES

SECTION 1.

- a) The Claims Director shall, once each year, during his term of office, examine into and adjust all claims for benefits against the Association.
- b) The Claims Director shall have power within a reasonable time to settle all claims for injuries or sickness for which the Association is legally liable. The Claims Director shall report all business transacted by him to the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors.
- c) The Claims Director shall have the right to direct the appearance before him of any member of the Association entitled to benefits and who is physically able to attend to answer all reasonable questions relative to the member's claim for benefits.
- d) The Claims Director may engage a physician in such cases as it deem necessary, to examine any member applying for or receiving benefits; such member shall submit to reasonable examination by the physician giving such history as may be determined necessary by such physician; such member shall receive no further benefits as a results of the application until action upon such application by the Board of Directors.
- e) The Claims Director shall submit any physicians' bill, which he may contract for under the foregoing paragraph to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2.

The Memorial Committee Chairman, appointed annually by the President, shall arrange exercises to be held on Firefighters' Memorial Day and shall take full charge of the Association's memorial monument.

SECTION 3.

At the December meeting of the Board of Directors the President shall with the approval of the Board of Directors appoint a nominating Committee of at least three (3) members who, as soon as practicable, shall arrange a slate of officers for presentation to a special meeting of the Association which shall be held during the first Tuesday of January at which time counter-nominations may be had from the floor.

SECTION 4.

There shall be a Finance Committee that will be appointed by the President, but it will not include the President and Treasurer. This Committee will review all bank statements and or all financial records quarterly during the year, at the March, June, September, and December monthly meetings.

ARTICLE IX

FEES AND DUES

SECTION 1.

Entrance Fee. Every member accepted for active membership in the Association shall pay an entrance fee equivalent to one percent (1.0%) of their first year's salary. There shall be no age restrictions.

SECTION 2.

Dues. All active members shall pay as dues during the first twelve (12) months of the membership the sum of 0.3% of a top step Private's basic annual salary as stated in the current collective bargaining agreement (CBA) between IAFF Local 1363 and The City of Cranston, this sum shall be payable through payroll deduction and divided into 26 biweekly payments. Thereafter, the sum of 0.3% of a top step Private's basic annual salary as stated in the current CBA between IAFF Local 1363 and The City of Cranston, this sum shall be payable through payroll deduction and divided into 26 biweekly payments. In the event that the CBA between IAFF Local 1363 and The City of Cranston expires or is not in force for any reason dues shall remain the same until such time as a new contract is in force.

SECTION 3.

Dues. Pensioned members of the Association shall pay Ninety ($90) dollars per year until age sixty five (65). For members of the City Pension System, this amount will be divided into 12 monthly payments through payroll deduction. For members in the State Pension System, the full amount will be invoiced and sent to the member's address of record on or about the 1st of January.

SECTION 4.

Failure to pay dues as required under this Article shall, if such failure shall continue for a period of forty (40) days, result in forfeiture of all right to benefits. Upon the expiration of forty (40) days from the due date, the Secretary shall notify the member by certified mail, postage prepaid, that such member is out of benefits; ninety (90) days from the due date shall result in termination of membership in the Association.

- a) At the next regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors following the expiration of the ninety-day period mentioned in this Section, the Board of Directors shall vote on the question of termination of membership in the Association. Upon affirmative vote of the Board, all rights, privileges and benefits including those of heirs and designated beneficiaries shall cease and terminate.

SECTION 5.

Any such member whose right to benefits has terminated due to failure of payment of dues, assessments, or other monies due the Association from such member may apply for reinstatement to the Board of Directors of the Association and upon affirmative vote of the Board may be reinstated as a member of the Association with all rights, benefits and privileges accruing to such member, provided that all dues, assessments, loans, or other monies owed the Association, as would have or have accrued during the period from the date of termination of membership to the date of reinstatement shall be paid in full by such member applying for reinstatement.

ARTICLE X

ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1.

In the case of the death of any member of the Association, the Board of Directors is authorized, at its discretion, to levy an assessment on each surviving member and is further authorized to determine the amount of said assessment and the method and terms for payment of same. Pensioned members will pay 1/2 of active members until age sixty-five (65).

SECTION 2.

Any member failing to pay his assessment within the time stipulated by the Board of Directors shall be notified by certified mail, postage prepaid, by the Secretary that he is out of benefits. Upon failure to pay assessments within a time specified by the Board of Directors, membership in the Association shall terminate as provided in Section 6, Article IX. Membership may, however, be reinstated as provided in Section 6, Article IX.

ARTICLE XI

DUTIES OF MEMBERS

SECTION 1.

Barring incapacity due to illness or injury and with the exception of a member's Death Benefit and final Medical Claim, it is the responsibility of members to petition the CPFRA for benefits.

SECTION 2.

It is the responsibility of members to notify the CPFRA of any and all changes in their contact information (including but not limited to their mailing address[es], phone number[s], and e-mail address[es]) and their beneficiary information.

SECTION 3.

Any member who incurs unnecessary fees upon the Association shall, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be held liable for those fees in the form of a reduction of benefits in the amount equal to the fee incurred.

ARTICLE XII

HOSPITALIZATION AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

SECTION 1.

The Association shall, during any one calendar year, pay to any active or pensioned member who has for at least one year been a member in good standing, as that term is defined in these by-laws, a sum for medical bills, supplemental insurance premiums and/or prescriptions, subject to the following terms and conditions:

- a) Prior to any medical or prescription payment being made pursuant to Article XII hereof, the member seeking said payment must first exhaust all other insurance available to said member, including but not limited to any paid insurance plan offered by the City of Cranston, and any plan in which said member is enrolled either privately or through another employer.
- b) In any event, payments to a member pursuant to Article XII hereof shall be payable only to the extent that those medical expenses incurred exceed the total amount payable pursuant to said member's other medical insurance.
- c) Total payments to a member, including but not limited to payments for prescriptions, medical costs, psychiatric and/or supplemental medical insurance premiums, shall not exceed a sum, per member per calendar year, based on the market value of the Association's investment account as of the close of business on December 31. The maximum total payout shall be a sliding scale, as follows:

Investment Account Balance	Maximum Claim
$800,000 and Below	$0
$800,001 to $1,250,000	$300
$1,250,001 to $1,500,000	$475
$1,500,001 to $1,750,000	$600
$1,750,001 to $2,000,000	$700
$2,000,001 to $2,500,000	$800
$2,500,001 to $3,000,000	$900
$3,000,001 and above	$1000

SECTION 2.

All Medical claims must be submitted by February 28th for the previous year's claim. Medical claim payouts will be paid March 1st thru March 31st. All medical claims received after February 28th will be paid at a later date. If an extension of time is needed, said member should contact a Board member, for an extension and assistance with their medical claim.

SECTION 3.

Subject to the above limitations, the Association shall pay TWENTY PERCENT (20%) of said member's psychological and or mental health costs, which are directly incurred by, said member. Payments made pursuant to Section 3 hereof shall not, under any circumstances, exceed the sum of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY ($120.00) DOLLARS per member per year.

SECTION 4.

Subject to the above limitations and provided that said member is retired, above the age of 65 and enrolled in Medicare Part A and B, the Association shall provide reimbursement for supplemental medical insurance premiums. For purposes of this Association, Medicare Part A and B shall be considered a primary health insurance and not supplemental. With the exception of Medicare A and B, all other forms of Medicare Plans and qualified private market supplemental or "Medigap" plans shall be considered supplemental in nature. Withstanding the above, final determination as to what is and what is not qualified supplemental medical insurance shall be determined by The Board of Directors and further addressed through Medical Claims Policy and Procedure. Any denied member shall be afforded the right of appeal.

SECTION 5.

The Association shall not make payments to members for the following:

- a) Dental work of any kind;
- b) Chiropractic treatment;
- c) Physical Therapy treatment;
- d) Any sums, which are required to be paid pursuant to contractual obligations, imposed on said member by said member's health insurance carrier(s) or by said member's employer(s).

- e) Injuries which occur during the course of employment with the City of Cranston or with any other employer, or any other injury for which said member could apply for workers' compensation benefits.

ARTICLE XIII

DEATH BENEFITS

SECTION 1.

hospital. Under these conditions, his insurance will become effective on the first such date.

- c) All active and pensioned members of the Association on the effective date of the plan shall be covered.
 - 1) No future member of the Association shall be eligible for coverage until he has first served one (1) year with the Cranston Fire Department and has been accepted as a member of the Association. The insurance of said member shall become effective on the first day of the month in which he becomes eligible for coverage.

ARTICLE XIV

VOTING AND ELECTIONS

SECTION 1.

On all matters relating to the election of officers and Board of Directors, all voting shall be cast in person by eligible members of the Association on the day of said election at which such vote is tabulated. A plurality shall determine the results of said election.

SECTION 2.

The Secretary, with the assistance of the Voting Committee, shall conduct and supervise the election of Directors as provided in these by-laws, the election of which Directors is held at other than meetings of the Association. The election of officers and members of certain committees, where provided for at meetings of the Association, shall be supervised by the Chair.

- a) Election of Officers and Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee shall, at a special meeting of the Association, to be held within the first Tuesday of January of each year, present to the membership its slate of officers. The Chair shall afford reasonable time to said meeting during which counter nominations may be made. At the end of such reasonable time, the Chair shall declare all nominations closed and shall advise the Secretary of the names of all persons nominated. The Secretary, with the assistance of the Voting Committee, will prepare a written ballot containing the names of members nominated.
- b) The Voting Committee shall, as necessary, assist the Secretary in the preparation of the ballots. Ballots are to be done by the Australian Ballot System. The Voting Committee, acting, as tellers under the supervision of the Secretary, shall tally the votes cast. The Secretary shall certify the results of the election to the President who shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of the annual meeting, issue a call for the organizational meeting of the Directors.

- c) Amendments. Voting on amendments shall be conducted by the Secretary with the assistance of the Voting Committee. Such voting shall be conducted by ordinary mail. A ballot with amendments shall be mailed to both active and pensioned members at their respective addresses as carried on the rolls of the Association with a notification to the members as to the date on which their ballots shall be returned for tabulation.

ARTICLE XV

PENALTIES

SECTION 1.

Any member who shall make false or fraudulent statements regarding his health or period of sickness or injury with the intention of securing benefits from this Association, or who uses any of the funds of the Association for any purpose whatsoever, other than provided by the rules and regulations, shall upon determination to that effect by the Board of Directors forfeit all claims for benefits and at once cease to be a member of this Association.

SECTION 2.

Any member selling tickets, accepting donations, or soliciting funds for this Association will be held responsible for the proceeds in money of such sales or solicitations or both. All members shall turn in all unsold tickets prior to time of the event. Members shall make a full accounting of all such monies not later than the date of the event. Any member failing to account for funds or tickets within the time specified shall be notified by certified mail, postage prepaid, by the Secretary that he is out of benefits and that unless accounting and payment is made within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice, his membership in the Association shall cease, his name stricken from the rolls, and he shall not be again admitted to membership in the Association.

SECTION 3.

No member of the Association shall engage in any business activity as a representative of their own business firm or company or be a paid agent of any business firm or company that will involve the disbursement of the Association funds for purchase, services or investments that will allow said member to make any monetary gain from these activities as a representative of these entities.

ARTICLE XVI

FUND RAISING

SECTION 1.

The Association from time to time shall engage in fund raising activities on behalf of the active and retired members and their dependents.
